

Strategic Plan for development (2013-28)

The strategic plan is to emerge as elite institute with national recognition and transform students into professional engineers and successful entrepreneurs by imparting contemporary education. Perspective/ Strategic Plans are made in three stages to achieve vision of institution as described below.

Sl. No	Short Term plans (2013-2018)	Medium term plans (2013-2023)	Long term plans (2013-2028)
1	To develop highly effective teaching-learning practices	To establish digital class rooms for all programs	To introduce STEM education
2	To initiate accreditation process for National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC)	To initiate accreditation process for National Board of Accreditation.	To obtain accreditation for Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology, Inc.
3	To modernize all laboratories as per emerging technology	To establish center of excellence in all departments.	To commence incubation centers and start-up
4	Establish a strong network with alumni, parents, academicians, reputed institutes and industry experts.	To introduce research center in all programs.	To set up research center in every domain of Engineering.
5	To establish Entrepreneurship Development Cell.	To establish incubation Centers in all departments.	To establish Intellectual Property Rights cell.

6	To obtain quality assurance by ISO certification.	To attain autonomy status and introduce Credit System in curriculum	To attain Deemed University status. To introduce CBCS with Credit-transfer facility.
7	To introduce skill based education in all departments.	To initiate R & D projects in collaboration with industry and institutes of excellence.	To establish R & D centers in all departments.
8	To implement Learning Management System (LMS) and ERP for management system	To initiate automation of library and administration	To initiate steps for total digital transaction

[Handwritten Signature]
Chairman

Dhole Patil College of Engineering,

Wagholi, Pune